I. STATEMENT OF POLICY

University organizational units that wish to host websites for non-profit or professional organizations that are not capable of hosting their own website may apply to the University for such purpose. Among other things, the University will consider the following in connection with such application:

1. The organization must be dedicated to the support of higher education.
2. The university must hold membership in the organization.
3. A university faculty or staff must sponsor the externally hosted website and be responsible for the content published on the website.
4. The individual(s) within the nonprofit or professional organization requesting LMU faculty/staff sponsored websites must hold and maintain an executive role within the organization at all times while the university hosting continues.
